Children of the Korn

This year Deland-Weldon has received several awards. Operation Cool awarded the juniors and seniors a check for 5000 dollars. This means our school had a 100 percent of the student drivers buckle up. Our school received the Bright A+ Award for being in the top 66 out of 895 school districts in Illinois.

Melissa and Tonya working to accomplish excellence in keyboarding.

Ashley shows school spirit by volunteering to be auctioned off on slave day.

In the 80 smallest schools, Deland-Weldon was ranked second in the state. The ACT scores were an average of 23.5 which puts our students in the top 7 percent nationally. The Social Studies scores for the high school were in the top 10 percent nationally. So you can see why the students in Deland-Weldon take pride in a school they each help build to greatness.

Administration and Secretaries

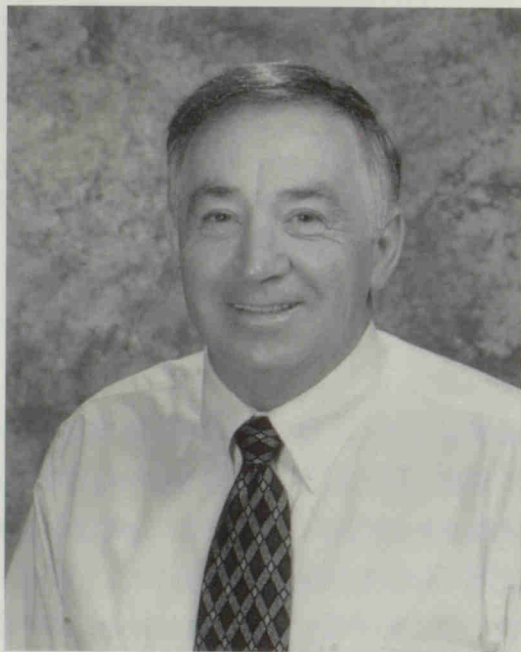

This year we had two new faces in the high school office. First is our own beloved Mr. Stiverson who has taken on the role of high school principal. Secondly, the high school secretary, Judy Carr, retired last year. During the summer the school hired on Cheryl Jones. Cheryl has three children who attend our elementary school. She says the best part of working here is interacting with all the students. We enjoyed seeing both of you in the high school office. Keep up the good work!

Cheerleading

Despite this years' difficulties, all eleven member of the cheerleading squad managed to pull together to create great team spirit. We had a camp in the summer where we learned our homecoming dance "The Twilight Zone." The cheerleaders play a vital role in enhancing school spirit. They decorate the boys' basketball lockers, create run through signs for the games, and provide a variety of activities and contests during spirit week. Keep up the good work girls!

Student council is involved in a variety of activities every year. They sponsor a bonfire at the end of the volleyball season. They are completely responsible for the Homecoming dance. They even host a barbeque at the end of each school year. We have a lot to thank student council for.

This year besides their regular duties there were a couple of special opportunities our student council took advantage of. First, they participated in Read Across America. This is a day where school, libraries, bookstores and even celebrities across the country try and promote reading at all ages. Next, they added a very special award to our awards day ceremony, teacher of the year. The winner of our first annual teacher of the year award was Mr. Eatock.

Spanish Club

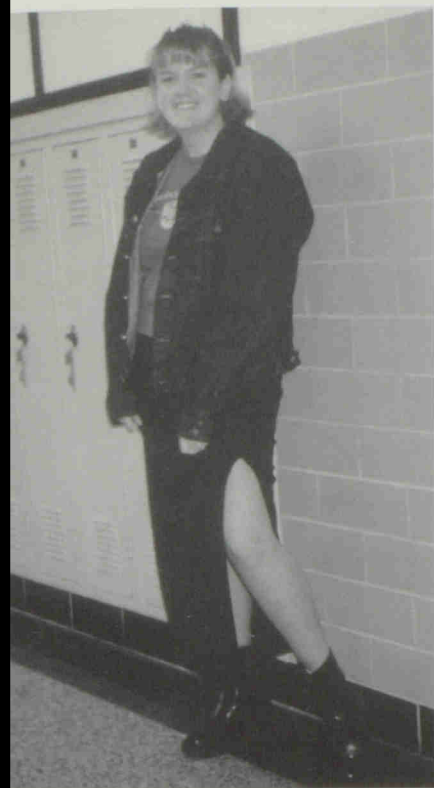

Mrs. Lueke, Mary Voss and Jacquie Bush have worked very hard this year to start a new club at this school --- The Spanish Club! Mary completed her fourth year of Spanish this year, with Jacqui completing her third.

So what do you do in a Spanish club? Well these ladies have spent most of the year raising a boat load of money. In fact, they've raised enough to go to Spain this summer! Have a great time ladies.

Graduation Class of 2001

This year's graduating class consisted of eight outstanding seniors. Mary Voss can be seen above giving her valedictorian speech. Mary received many awards including the DeLand-Weldon Educators Association scholarship. She will be attending the University of Illinois in the Fall. To the left is Jessica Lester with her salutatorian speech. She will be attending Parkland in the Fall.

Other awards given included the Daughters and Sons of the Revolution received by Andy Neathery and Valerie Cowser respectfully, the Masons' Scholarship given to Valerie Cowser, the Army Scholar Athletes awarded to Andy Neathery and LaDonna Thompson, and the American Legion Citizenship Award given to Andy Neathery and Mary Voss.

Variety Show

This year Mrs. Stebbings and Mrs. Schlesinger joined forces to put on a variety show. The band played a number of pieces including "Devil With a Blue Dress" and the choir sang music by Queen and the Beach Boys. Also, Derrick Roy performed a drum solo that was quite impressive. Mrs. Stebbings choreographed dances including an ensemble piece to "Supermodel" and a duet to "Outside" featuring Melissa Neathery and Alycia Arnold. There was even comedy from Luke and Chuck. Overall it went well and we all had a great time!

The Election of the Sophomore Class' "Noted Enforecer of Rowdiness and Deviance."

As many of you know, during the end of the year elections Mr. Arenas created a few new offices the Sophomore class could run for. What you might not know is that one of those offices was the "Noted Enforcer of Rowdiness and Deviance" or N.E.R.D. for short. This office is meant to keep all the trouble making in the Sophomore class confined to that one person. In this election the sophomores had two canidates to chose from, Chuck Arnold and Formal D. Hyde the cat. It was an exciting race!

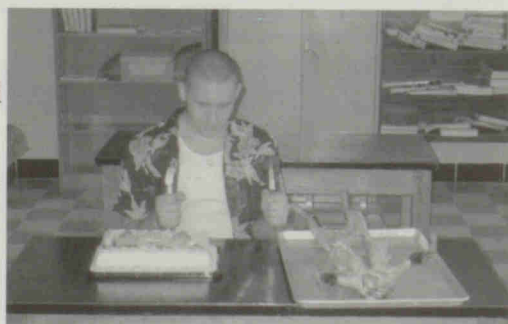

Both canidates were musically inclined.

Also, both sides had their enthusias-tic sup-porters.

In the end, Chuck won by a marginal vote and Formal called for a recount. Even then it was obvious that Chuck had eaten, I mean beaten, the competition.

It's offical folks! Chuck is the N.E.R.D.

The Election of 1800: A Review of the National History of the Election and the Results

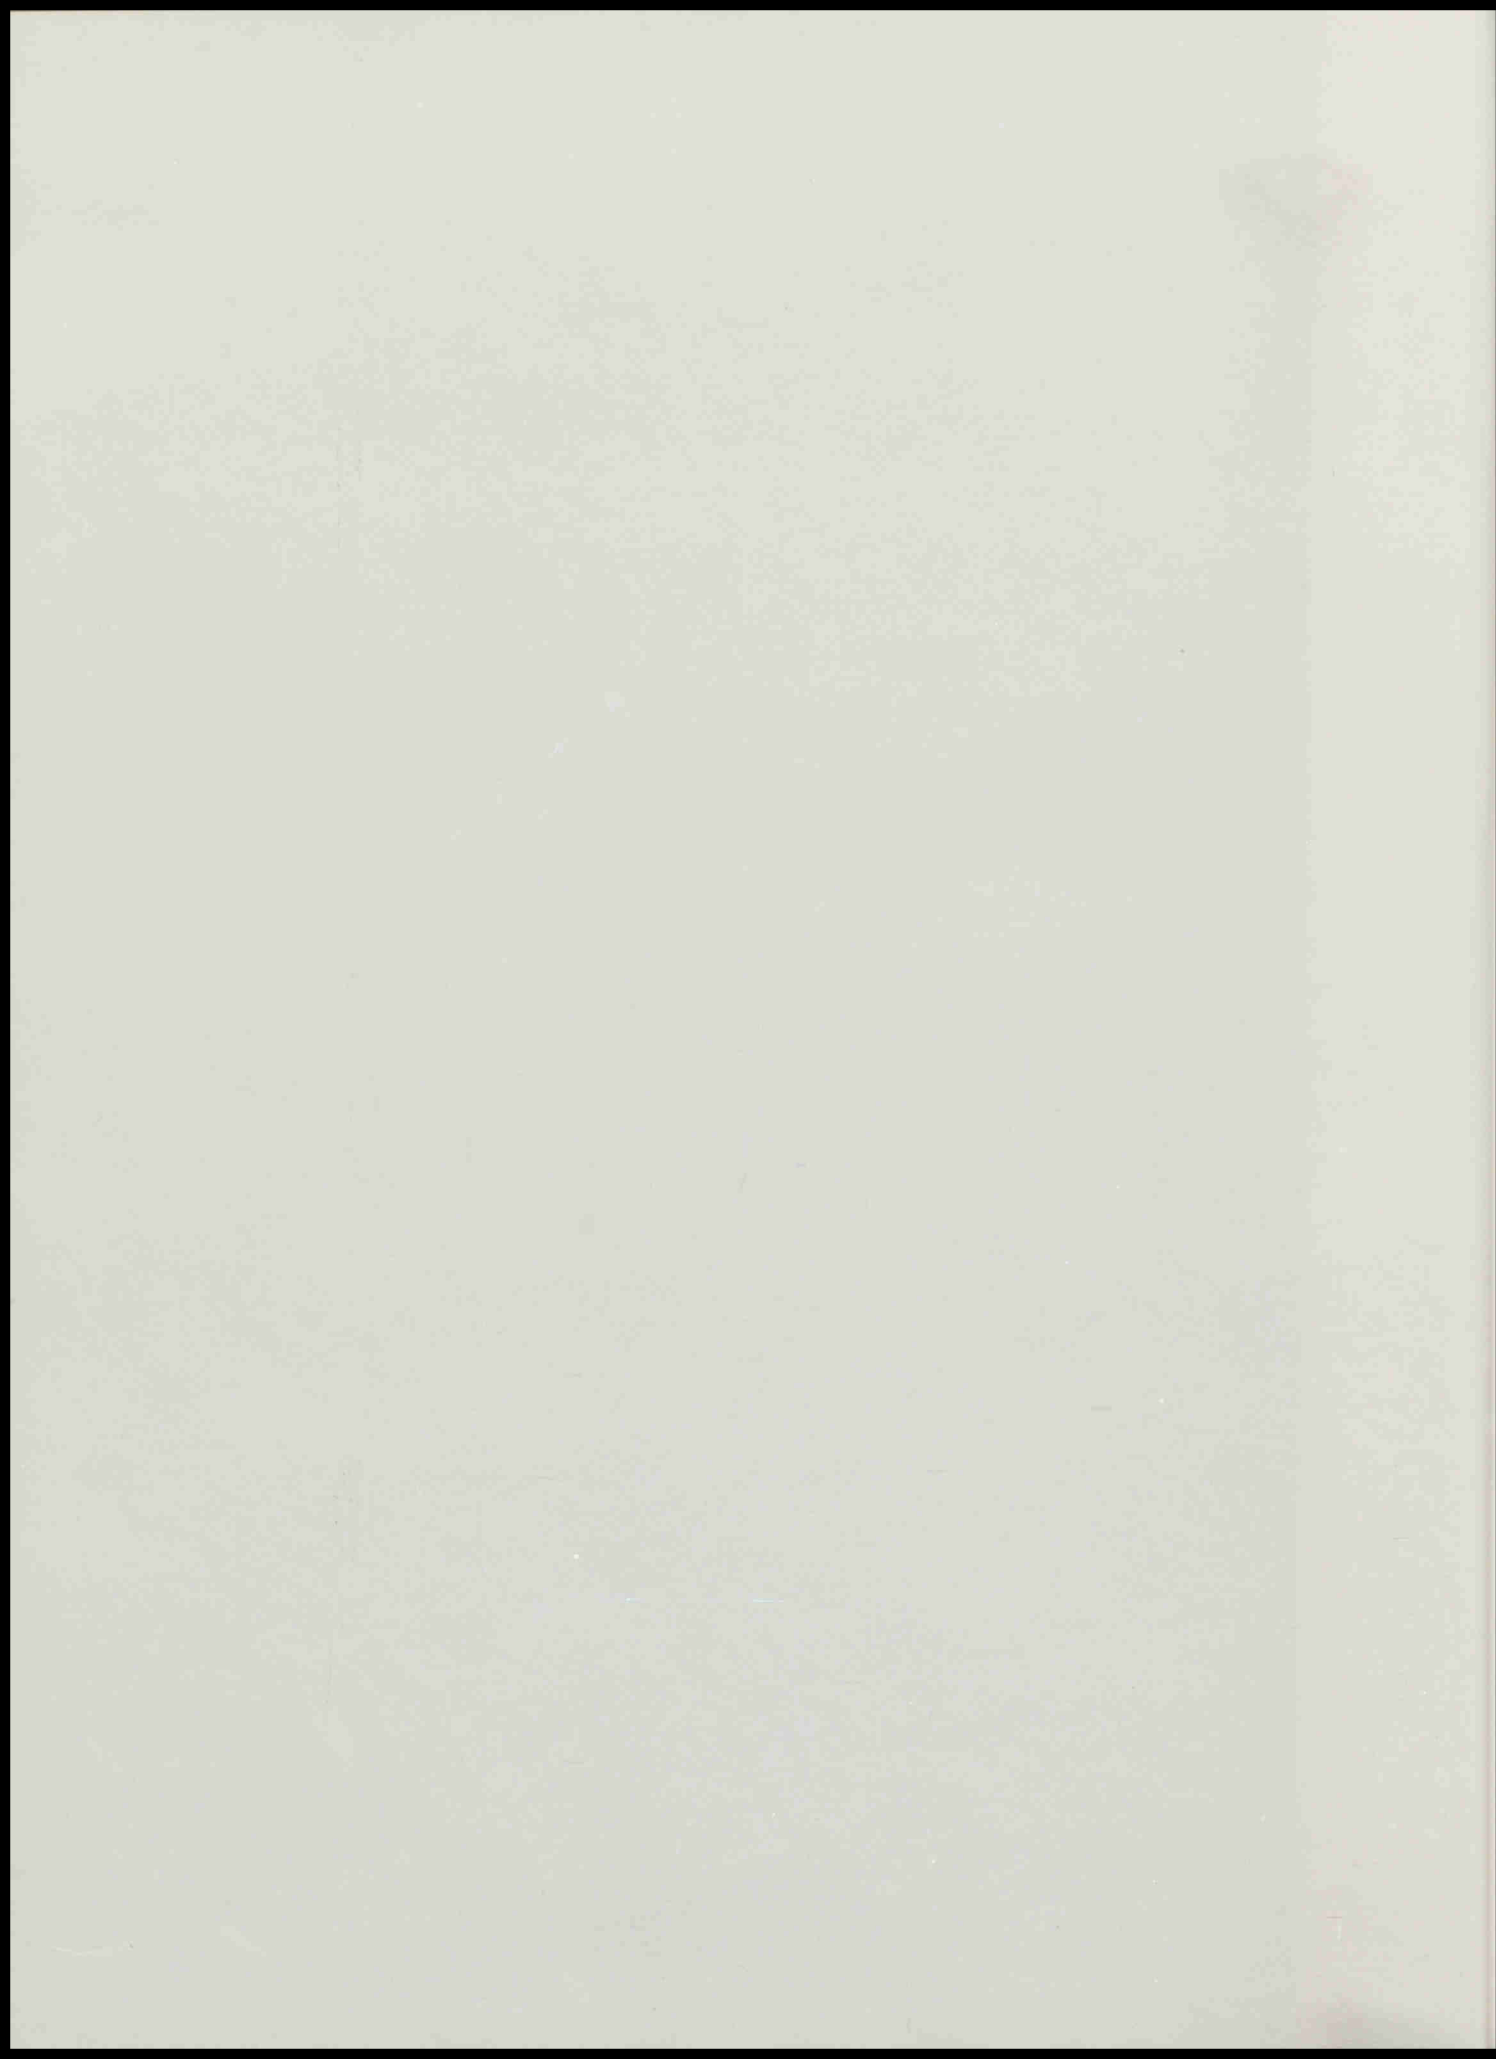

The election of 1800 was a pivotal moment in American history, marking the first time that the presidency was contested between two political parties. The Federalist Party, led by John Adams, and the Democratic-Republican Party, led by Thomas Jefferson, both vied for the White House. The election was a close contest, with Jefferson ultimately winning the presidency.
